There are 2 amazing hotels in my area that I can recommend you to choose for staying.

One of them is called "Gumbinin". It's situated not far from the town centre. It's quiet and peaceful place. The building of this hotel has the architecture of the 17th century ~~what is~~ exiting. The staff of "Gumbinin" is polite and friendly, they can advise you the ~~pt~~ necessary places for a visiting. Moreover, the prices aren't so expensive, so every tourist can let yourself to stay here.

Also there is another hotel, which is called "Imperia". It's located near the square in the modern building. What is really beautiful, you can have a free breakfast and lunch here, it's so convenient for tourists ~~that~~ ^{who} haven't ever been in Gusev. Besides, a free guide will show you the most memorial places and give advise where it's better to buy souvenirs. But this hotel suits for people who don't count their money.

So, for the usual tourist I can recommend to choose the first one, ~~but if the price is unnecessary for you, you can~~ choose the second point. I hope, it won't be affect on your impression about my native town.
