From: 11 „A“ form

To: Principal Jones

Subject: School improvement

Dear Mrs Jones,

I am writing to you from 11 „A“ form. You have asked each class to suggest how to spend money on improving our school. We have some ideas.

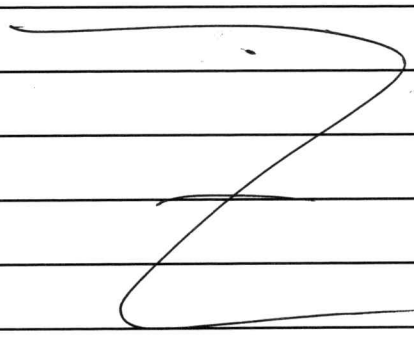

First of all, in our opinion, our school library should be extended and more books should be bought. Students need books to gain important information and prepare for exams. Moreover, books can be very useful on literature lessons. Students will be able to read books of famous authors and learn about ~~the~~ characters.

Another thing that should be improved in our school is computers. We can buy new laptops instead of the old ones. Students will be able to access the Internet and get the information they need.

We hope that you will listen to our ideas and the improvements will be made.

Best wishes,

11 „A“ form

A large, stylized, handwritten letter 'Z' is drawn across the lined paper. The letter starts with a horizontal top bar, followed by a diagonal stroke down to the bottom left, and ends with a horizontal bottom bar. Small arrows indicate the direction of the strokes: a downward arrow on the top bar, a rightward arrow on the bottom bar, and a curved arrow on the diagonal stroke.

If additional space is required, please use the reverse side of this paper
